

RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

Policy Statement

The recruitment and selection process is designed to be fair and consistent, reflecting the ASA's commitment to equality. We aim to achieve the best match between an individual's knowledge, skills, experience and potential with the requirements of a role. The ASA recognises the positive value of diversity and aims at all times to recruit the person who is most suited to the job and welcomes applications from people of all backgrounds. This policy is intended to provide information and guidelines about our approach to recruitment and selection. We will ensure that our recruitment and selection process is fair and consistent, as we endeavour to recruit the best candidate for any given vacancy.
